Annual Meeting Basketball Playoffs

A pictorial history of educated and gentlemanly futility

For your viewing pleasure and bittersweet memories, here are the Glick archives of the legendary ACNP Annual B'Ball games from the 1980s to the last one in 2013. For the record, please send misidentifications or names of "unknowns" to Richard and me. Also if you have any photos, please scan, and send them along to be added to the collection.

It was fun....."keep on passing to your colleagues and making them better."

Best regards,

Ira & Richard
